

Benefits and fees

Open courses (online and IRL): benefits and fees academic year 2024/25

Violin and cello	4 free course days per year	Exceeding days 600 SEK/day
Winds except oboe, bassoon, French horn	4 free course days per year	Exceeding days 600 SEK/day
Oboe, bassoon, French horn, viola and double bass	8 free course days per year	Exceeding days 600 SEK/day, but for courses in Vänersborg YOMA covers travel and one day's full board per course for up to 4 course weekends
All participants registered in Gävleborg, Västmanland and Västra Götaland counties	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists, French horn, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses and one day's full board
Participants from countries other than Sweden* who play the violin or cello and are aged 12 or under, and all online participants from other countries	No free course days	All course days 600 SEK/day

* who do not have a Swedish passport or are registered in Sweden

The Open Programme (online and IRL): benefits and fees academic year 2024/25

Violin and cello	8 free course days per year	Exceeding days 600 SEK/day
Viola and double bass	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
Wind instruments	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists and French horn players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
All participants registered in Gävleborg, Västmanland and Västra Götaland counties	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists, French horn, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
Participants from countries other than Sweden* who play the violin or cello and are aged 12 or under, and all online participants from other countries	No free course days	All course days 600 SEK/day

* who do not have a Swedish passport or are registered in Sweden

Talent and Soloist Programme & Master classes (online and IRL): benefits and fees academic year 2024/25

Talent Programme: all orchestral instruments and piano	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists, French horn, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
Solist Programme (only for Swedish participants): orchestral instruments and piano	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, participants in the Solist Programme receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
Master class by personal invitation	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists, French horn, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
All participants registered in Gävleborg, Västmanland and Västra Götaland counties	All course days are free of charge	For courses in Vänersborg, oboists, bassoonists, French horn, viola and double bass players receive travel expenses within Sweden and one day's full board
Participants from countries other than Sweden* who play the violin or cello and are aged 12 or under, and all online participants from other countries	No free course days	All course days 600 SEK/day

* who do not have a Swedish passport or are registered in Sweden